ANTI RAGGING WORKSHOP

Ragging can be any form of disorderly conduct between the seniors and juniors in an educational setup that may cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm.

For a student, starting college life is a phase of huge transitioning that may be full of hope and enthusiasm but can also incite certain degree of anxiety due to the changed and highly competitive environment. Learning to socialize in an unfamiliar environment and new faces, while, facing the hazards of ragging can add greatly to the increased mental stress. To address these concerns and create awareness amongst the freshly joined graduate and post graduate students, Sudha Rustagi College of Dental Science and Research, Faridabad on 19th Nov 2024 organized a lecture session on Anti -ragging measures.

The Chairman of the college Sh. Dharamvir Gupta and the Secretary, Mr. Deepak Gupta, Dr.CM Marya (Principal), Dr Vishal Juneja (CEO) were the leading inspirations of the program. It was conducted by Dr. Shweta Rehani (Professor and Head of Oral Pathology and Microbiology) and the Anti- Ragging Committee of the college which comprised of Heads and senior faculty of various departments. It was attended by all graduates, post graduates, faculty members and administrative staff.

The session was conducted by the esteemed Dr Puneet Batra, Principal and Head of Orthodontics and Dentofacial Orthopedics, Manav Rachna Dental College. He is a Member of Dental Council of India, while, presently serving as the President of Indian Society of Orthodontics. Dr Batra raised awareness about the conducts that were considered hazardous and lay within the purview of ragging. Information was provided regarding the current Indian penal laws against ragging and the measures in place within the college campus to help the freshers.

The program was met with great attentiveness and was generously appreciated by the new undergraduates and post graduates alike.
